UNIFORM SHOP
Now that the rush of the first two weeks is over, our volunteers in the canteen and Uniform Shop will be keeping to our long-term routines. Canteen volunteers will not be selling uniform items when the canteen is open.

Uniforms can be obtained by handing in an order and payment at our office. (Allow up to a fortnight for it to be filled.) If enough people volunteer, the Uniform Shop will be able to open on a monthly or possibly fortnightly basis.

- CALLING VOLUNTEERS The uniform shop needs helpers. If you are able to spare time to sell school uniform on a regular basis, please call Ashleigh Zee on 0414 428 547.
CANTEEN NEWS
A special mention for our canteen volunteer Chrissy Jenner who did her first stint at canteen. She did an awesome job and we're all hoping to see her back again soon! Thank you also for Karen Lichtner for showing Chrissy the ropes! Another special mention must go to Monica Morrison, who did Wednesday on her own and managed to make record Wednesday sales! Awesome effort girls!! We really appreciate all your efforts.

Please note that the following items have recently been discontinued by our supplier Daily Fresh:

- That Dairy Snack (won’t be replacing)

MANDARIN CLASS – EXPRESSION OF INTEREST

There has been discussion at P&C about the possibility of engaging an organisation to deliver Mandarin language classes at Pagewood PS. The classes would not replace the whole school French language program, which is long established here.

The Mandarin classes would be held before school, probably from 8am to 9am. (Yes, it’s early, but it was felt that there would be too many interruptions after school).

Cost, which would have to be paid to the organisation at the beginning of each term, would be $100 for 10 weeks or $400 per year.

To assess whether planning should proceed, we need to know whether there are sufficient people interested. If you would like your child/ren to be involved please complete the attached Expression of Interest and return to your child’s teacher.

Thank you.

Ms M Hogan
